THE COLLEGE: UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL.

SCHEDULE OF STUDIES FOR 1906-1907.

The courses outlined below are all prescribed courses with the exception of the topics enumerated under the heading "THE ELECTIVE" for Senior year, one only of which is prescribed, and the Modern Language prescribed for Freshman year, which may be, at option, either French or German.

SENIOR YEAR.

COURSE 2.—PSYCHOLOGY. Five hours a week for one-half the first term and one-half the second. Lectures, repetitions and circles. Text-book, Russo, Summa Philosophica. References: Jouin, S. J., Compendium Logicae et Metaphysicae,—Maher, S. J., Psychology (Stonyhurst Series).

Proofs of the existence of God. His essence. Examination of Pantheistic systems. The divine immutability, immensity.

It appears that many courses are year-long courses. When not, there are often references to "first term" or "second term" but never "third" so it appears to be a semester system.

Physiological Psychology. Two hours a week for one full term. Lectures on the anatomy and physiology of the nervous system, localization of cerebral function, correlation of the nervous mechanism and mental conditions and actions.
THE UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL.

References: Maher, S. J., Psychology (Stonyhurst Series), Ladd, Physiological Psychology.

Geology. Two hours a week for one full term. Text-book, Le Conte, Compend of Geology. Lectures on Dynamical, Structural and Historical Geology.

The Elective. Two hours a week for two full terms must be devoted to one or more of the following subjects; the choice of the subject rests with the student:

Laboratory Physics, Pedagogy, Principles of Law, Biology, History, English Literature, Mechanical Drawing or Descriptive Geometry.

N. B.—The Seniors are required to write a weekly English Essay in some matter of the courses which they are following.

Elocution. One-half hour a week for two full terms. The course consists of speaking before the upper classes in Gaston Hall with mutual criticism as well as instruction and correction by a presiding Instructor.
